The congressional convention of the First district of Michigan Monday nominated Levi T. Griffin as a candidate to succeed Congressman J. Logan Chipman deceased.

Mrs. Belle Rogers, of Louisville, while at the World's fair, saw a mummy 5,000 years old. It turned her mind and now she is demoted, imagining herself as old as the oldest.

The large cotton gin and corn mill of Hyman & Co., near Courtland, Ala., was burned by fire last week, together with seven hundred bales of cotton, a large quantity of grain and cotton seed. Loss, $70,000.

Stoneville, Va. De France, now under arrest in Detroit, Mich., for forgery, has been fully identified as the man J. Lamb, who last spring swindled Jacob Newman, of Chicago, out of several thousand dollars.

The second annual convention of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railroad Employers of America met in Cleveland, O., at noon Monday. Representatives are in attendance from thirty-four cities.

Judge McCombs Monday overruled the demurrer against the indictment in the case of Col. Alinworth and others in the Ford's theater disaster. Mr. Ross Perry, counsel for Col. Alinworth, gave notice of an appeal to the court of appeals.

At Minneapolis, Minn., a human matriarchy was born to Hugh Hammering and wife, of St. Nicholas. The deformed child has no arms, not even signs where arms should be, and its body and head largely resemble that of a frog.

A girl named Jennie Henderson was killed near Parkersburg, W. Va., Monday afternoon while sitting near the roadside. A mule that had been teased by some boy turned and kicked out with both feet, striking the girl in the head, crushing her skull.

The indebtedness of the World's Columbian exposition, regarding which such dire forebodings were made at the opening, has been wiped out. The check calling for $1,505,810 has been signed by A. P. Seoberger, treasurer, and countersigned by Wm. K. Ackerly, auditor.

The U. S. supreme court began its October term Monday. All the justices were on the bench. Chief Justice Fuller announced that owing to the death of Justice Blatchford all business set for Monday would go over until Tuesday, and the court adjourned to enable the members to pay their respects to the president of the United States in a body.

One catering company alone fed three hundred thousand people Chicago day at the World's fair, but early in the afternoon they were compelled to turn people away for the want of supplies. This was caused by the inability of the company to get its fourteen supply wagons through the dense crowd to the various restaurants and lunch rooms operated by this company.

CHICAGO DAY.

All Assemblages of Modern Times Surpassed.

Half a Million People Gather at the Great World's Fair.

The Anniversary of Chicago's Great Fair Celebrated in a Way Never to Be Forgotten—They Came by Steam Cars, Street Cars, Automobiles, Etc.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—When Chicago planned Monday's exercises and festivities the characteristic push and enterprise at once asserted itself, and a special committee appointed by the city council, assisted by World's fair officials, began the preliminary arrangements to make Chicago day the biggest of the exposition. After several weeks of work the programme was arranged satisfactorily. The day was a grand success. It was the banner event of the fair. The avenues were not filled with equipages of state, but the common people, dressed in the tens of thousands, the school children, laborers, mechanics, in fact, citizens from every calling came in squads. Speech-making was no feature. Long ago exposition crowds have shown a distaste for oratorical contests. Monday all was action, and the popular interest was so numerous as to turn the head of the average citizen. One grand feature followed another. Before the sun had peaked above the blue of Lake Michigan people hurried to the different depots to take trains to the White City. Downtown business houses were locked up Saturday night and the keys had until Tuesday. Merchants attended by patriotic impulses purchased tickets for their employees, every body was in holiday attire, and Chicago was at her best. Every mode of transportation was taxed to its limit. For many of the cable trains three deep. Visitors were armed with souvenir tickets, and Chief Tucker, of the department of admissions, had every available man at work.

The decorations at the fair were superb. From the flagpoles of the big buildings, looping company with the stars and stripes, the colors of every nation waved out a greeting to their countrymen. The state buildings were loaded with bunting and flags, in many instances flowers were banked about the towers.

It was ten o'clock when the Chicago Hussars, under command of Capt. Brand, entered the grounds at the west end of Midway. As the company made tour of the grounds, the band followed the direction of Lieut. Russell, was firing a salute over the line front. Flanking the band basin and stationed on the periphery, administration, manufacturers and agricultural buildings, trumpeters in heralds' uniform played a short fanfare of peace, and then in unison, splitting into two columns, the grounds, "Peace on Earth, good Will to Men," was played. The combined bands, numbering several hundred musicians, played the air of "All Nations." It was a grand spectacle.

The height of enthusiasm was reached, however, when a chorus of 3,000 voices, under the direction of Prof. Tomlinson sang "The Star Spangled Banner." The refrain was taken up by 10,000 people, and the singers executed the notes of the American hymn, the united bands swelled the volume to an extent rarely heard. Then the focus sang some southern songs, including "Dixie Land," "Maryland" and "Kentucky Home." "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," was then sung, and the united bands marched from the grand plaza to the west entrance of the administration building. Here the star liberty bell was rung in honor of the day. Eight hundred voices, directed by Prof. Tomlinson, sang "Die Wacht am Rhein," "Marcellus," and other national airs on a platform west of the administration building. The morning exercises were closed by an exhibition drill on the stock pavilion by the Chicago Hussars.

The court of honor presented an imposing scene. There was a grand reunion of states represented by youths and maidens, all attired in appropriate costumes, symbols of the states which they represented. Chicago's guard of honor was comprised of youths, representing the thirty-four wards of the city. Each bore a huge shield on which was inscribed the word "Chicago." Following them were thirteen pretty maidens representing the original states of the union. They carried state shields and olive branches, and each wore a crown which was surmounted by a large gilt star. Then followed the different states of the Union, each carried on which was the name and motto of the state and the day of its admission to the Union. Flags, shades of wheat and flowers given were carried by the children. The day's incidents were closed in effective style, and as night drew on the crowd was added to by late comers, all bent on witnessing the gorgeous display of fireworks.

Never in the history of the fair were so many people together on Monday. From early morning the crowd came in automobiles columns. A full force of men were stationed at the gates and thousands of the Chicago day crowd lined up at every entrance. At the Sixty-third entrance it was next to impossible to gain admission, so dense was the crowd. It was the same story at the people came from every direction, thousands were compelled to sleep in state-way restaurants and hotel offices Sunday night, as the city was completely filled. Some were responsible to secure admission, and some were not. Trainloads of people were deposited downtown and in the exposition district Monday morning. All had the same object in view, and that was the White City. The line of those seeking admission was endless. Scarcely about half of the visitors had secured entrance tickets beforehand and the crowd around the ticket office was not so great as at the admission gates.

There were many organizations from great distances. The Fitchburg Railroad Co., of Boston, was represented by 100 of its employees, who arrived in their special car. An almost countless number of similar parties from points remote and near by came to swell the multitude.

While the people were perambulating through the gates Simon Piskagun, the Pottawatomie chief, and John Young, son of the Indian who named Chicago, rang the new liberty bell. They were introduced by Miss Emma Sikola, of Pine Ridge.

The greatest attendance at the Paris exposition of 1889 was 397,190, the greatest at the Philadelphia centennial was 317,030, and the greatest so far at the Chicago World's fair was July 4, when 383,273 persons were on the grounds, but Monday's attendance will reach over half a million. Paid admissions to the fair Sunday, 98,043.

AGAIN BEATEN.

The American Vigilant Details the British Valkyrie and Comes to Three Miles Ahead.

New York, Oct. 10.—A triangular course of 100 miles to be sailed by the American Vigilant and the British Valkyrie was marked out for the Vigilant and Valkyrie race Monday.

SANDY HOOK, Oct. 10.—11:25 a. m.—The Vigilant started yesterday and the Valkyrie in the lead. The Vigilant has her jib topsail, club topsail, main sail, fore staysail and jib spread. The Valkyrie has her jib topsail, main sail, fore staysail and jib spread. The Vigilant is one length ahead.

At 11:27 a. m. the Valkyrie opened the gap, apparently two lengths in the lead.

The wind increased to about 20 miles, but is patchy. The gap seems to have increased to about four lengths, but the Vigilant is now apparently forming along with better effect and lessening the gap.

At 12:00 p. m. the yachts were on the windward. The Vigilant was a little in the lead.

At 12:10 p. m. the yachts are now on port tack. The wind has hauled more to southward, velocity twenty-four miles an hour and increasing. The Vigilant has passed Valkyrie, and is apparently six lengths in the lead. She has her jib topsail out.

At 12:30 p. m. the Vigilant increasing her lead; wind S.W.; moderate breeze.

The Vigilant turned the first stake at 1:05 p. m. and the Valkyrie at 1:15 p. m. The Vigilant is about five minutes ahead.

At 1:40 p. m.—The Vigilant went out of the line at 1:40. The Valkyrie followed at 1:47:30. This shows that the Vigilant has now a lead of seven minutes and 30 seconds.

At 1:55 the Vigilant is now standing southeast to turn the second stake. Her sheets are hauled in.

At 1:57 the Vigilant jibbed around the second mark leading by six and one half minutes.

SANDY HOOK, Oct. 10.—3 p. m.—The Vigilant passed the line at 2:50, leaving the Valkyrie three miles astern.

THE STORM'S TRACK.

Beginning to Count the Aerial Cost in Life and Property.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 10.—This city has raised a relief fund of $75,000 in all, and steamers, ingers, skirts and trunks have been sent in every direction to extend relief. The only new development in the intelligence from Bayou Sadre, leading from the Grand Lake district, that there are one hundred deaths along that section, making about 1,600 deaths between Cheniere and Bayou Cook.

The Louisville and Nashville railroad is still busy repairing bridges, and will not be in good order for two weeks. A great many people are leaving their former homes in the stricken section and coming to New Orleans, but the heroics of the day on Bayou Cook and the Malay at Shell Beach and St. Malay say that what they want is to recover and repair their boats and rebuild their houses, and they will be able to take care of a living and pay back the money loaned.

It is safe now to number the deaths at 3,000 and over, but the loss in property will be $10,000,000. It would take several hundred thousands dollars to repair the hell road at the resorts in the Mississippi sound.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Developments in the suicide of Henry D. Kershaw, of New Orleans, leave no doubt but that insanity was the cause. His attorney, Mr. Gilmore, said Monday "Kershaw was born and raised in New Orleans, and is connected with some of the wealthiest and most prominent families there. His mother is a cousin of Napoleon III. His widow is a niece of the confederate general, Robert E. Lee. Kershaw could not let his mother die and it ruined him. That's the whole story."

It will compromise.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—It is understood that a compromise has been agreed upon by the silver men in the senate. The compromise is that the secretary of the treasury be directed to purchase and coin 2,000,000 ounces of silver bullion monthly. It is believed that the repealers will agree to this compromise. It is said that the repealers will not vote the proposed compromise.

Belle Blinn's Baby.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The countess of Clancarty gave birth to a daughter yesterday, the daughter of the countess, Belle Blinn, a music hall singer, the married present earl of Clancarty in 1869, when he was Lord Clancarty. He was divorced in 1890, but the jury decided against him. After the verdict he became reconciled to her.

Mother Placidity Kills Her Child.

LEWIS, Ark., Oct. 10.—Near Yellowville, Ark. Saturday, Mrs. Frank Rice, wife of a well-to-do farmer, shot and killed her six-year-old son. The boy found an old pistol in the yard, and shot his mother. She was supposed to be empty, playfully pointed it at the child and fired, with fatal results.
